

Coordinating and Overseeing Program Accreditation Activities

Certain programs at NCC receive program-specific accreditation. In these cases, the program coordinator is expected to work with the department chair during the accreditation process. The PC is expected to work with the DC to prepare accreditation materials, collect and organize workroom documents, and coordinate accreditation meetings and events.