

Hiring Program Faculty

Maintaining qualified and talented faculty is absolutely vital for the success of academic programs at NCC. Program Coordinators are expected to thoughtfully recruit, interview, and assign new faculty. In addition, the PC should assist the DC to orient new faculty to the campus surroundings and be certain the newly hired instructors are aware of NCC policies, procedures, and practices.